MOTHER'S DAY ROSE SALE

We were notified of some additional volunteers who sold roses and wanted to make sure their efforts were not forgotten.

St. John's - Tipp City

Jean Mettgert	Kathy Henry	Diane Gullede	Marilyn Helke	Kathy Trent	Judy Arnold
Doan Donauer	Donna Prenger	Betty Schneider	Rose Denney	Lucy Wolfe	Tom Wolfe
Kathy McGrath	Janice Sommer	Judy McKitrick

St. Teresa's-Covington - Immaculate Conception Bradford

Don Cordonnier sold roses at both St. Teresa's and Immaculate Conception while his wife, Jean and their children Emily and Logan sold roses at St. Teresa's. Thanks to all of you who made Mother's Day a little brighter for area mothers.

2012 MIAMI COUNTY FAIR

Before you know, it will be time to head to the fairgrounds in Troy to help staff the MCRTL booth at the fair.

We are in need of volunteers who can help for two hours. It's for a good cause; besides the benefits are wonderful-especially the funnel cakes.

If you are interested, please contact Mary Jo Enneking at 937-339-3198. Thank you and see you at the fair!

PIQUA HERITAGE DAYS FESTIVAL

September 1, 2, 3, 2012

Please note that fruit pies are needed for the Heritage Festival on Labor Day weekend. Please contact Geri Lynn Ryan at 773-4684 for further information about where and when to deliver pies to use at the booth. We are also in need of volunteers to work the booth. Thank you

ENTERTAINMENT BOOKS—2012-2013

New books should be available around August 6, 2012. Please contact Mary Jo at 339-3198 if you are interested.

CHICAGO PRO-LIFE GROUP PROHIBITED

"Thomas More Society attorneys have demanded that the Lake County Fair reverse its rejection of booth applications from Lake County Right to Life and 'Peter's Net,' an initiative promoting Lake County Catholic Churches.

The Society claims that the fair's rejection of the groups is based on their respective religious messages, including the promotion of the Catholic Church and Church teaching by Peter's Net and the religiously motivated pro-life message and use of a prenatal development display including life-size fetal models used by Lake County Right to Life in its Fair booth for the last 37 years.

The actions of the Lake County Fair Association violate the Illinois Human Rights Act, Title II of the federal Civil Rights Act, and the Fair's own stated policy of nondiscrimination," said attorney Peter Breen, Executive Director and legal Counsel for the Thomas More Society, who is representing both groups. Instead of following its policy, the Fair Association is headed down a path of censorship and anti-religious bias that's both illegal and a black mark on the proud heritage of the Lake County Fair.

Kathleen Van Dien of the Lake County Fair Association told Lake County Right to Life's Quirke that the fair would consider allowing the group to have a booth if it agreed to discontinue its 37-year-long display of fetal models. When questioned as to the reason for censorship of such a long-time exhibit feature, Van Dien stated that there had been 'some complaints' though she was unwilling or unable to elaborate on the specific nature or give any detail. When asked by Quirke to provide written board verification of this board decision, Van Dien refused.

In a similar move, Van Dien told Ms. Paula Emmerth, Peter's Net founder, that permission for the group to return as 2012 exhibitors was denied. When asked to explain the denial, Van Dien responded that the vetting jury, and she, personally felt that the organizational message conveyed by Peter's Net went beyond what was authentically Catholic. She also alleged "complaints" about the Peter's Net booth, but as with the Lake County Right to Life, she would not provide details. Van Dien affirmed Emmerth's charge of censorship, stating she was doing so to "protect the public from your message" and that the Lake County Fair was "neither the time nor the place for this topic."

Letters sent today by Society attorneys to the Lake County Fair Association detailed the discriminatory and illegal nature of both Van Dien's actions and the denial of these exhibitors in good standing from participating in the Lake County Fair."
